WORD OF THE MONTH

skm

Gossamer

Definition: a fine, filmy substance consisting of cobwebs spun by small spiders, seen especially in the autumn on the grass or bushes.

Used in a sentence: Don't wait for autumn - I have a gossamer or seven in my house all year round!

FROM THE ARCHIVES

November 2011

“The pool heater as been replaced with a new more efficient model. The thermostat has been set at 85 degrees and with the help of the Florida sun the water should be ultimately swimmable. Silk Oak management still is looking for a way to control the air temp, but so far it's still up to Mother Nature.

The contract for the pool area improvement has been signed and work should begin within two to four weeks. And there is a rumor concerning new umbrellas for the tables.”

WOW!

skm

Think traffic is bad in your city? The next time you're stuck in a bumper-to-bumper grind, consider this fact: In August 2010, drivers on the Beijing-Tibet expressway were stuck in traffic for 12 whole days. Amazingly, the cause behind the congestion wasn't an accident or natural disaster, but rather simply too many people on the road — particularly slow trucks that were transporting materials for road work. (Ironically, that road work was meant to ease congestion.) The traffic jam stretched for 62 miles and took three days to drive from end to end.

Other famous traffic jams include the three-day congestion following Woodstock in Bethel, New York, in 1969 and the 18 million cars stuck when East and West Germany re-opened their borders to each other in 1990. (That traffic jam holds the Guinness record for the most number of vehicles.)

I don't know anyone who was involved in the international traffic jams, but I do know a handful who got caught in the Woodstock chaos! That small number includes two Silk Oak residents – Barbara Rock and Lorraine Neal.

(Damn hippies!)

NOVEMBER HAPPENINGS!

skm

It was originally called Armistice Day, commemorating the end of World War I.

World War I officially ended when the Treaty of Versailles was signed on June 28, 1919. However, the fighting ended about seven months before that when the Allies and Germany put into effect an armistice on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month.

For that reason, Nov. 11, 1918, was largely considered the end of “the war to end all wars” and dubbed Armistice Day. In 1926, Congress officially recognized it as the end of the war, and in 1938, it became an official holiday, primarily a day set aside to honor veterans of World War I.

But then World War II and the Korean War happened, so on June 1, 1954, at the urging of veterans service organizations, Congress amended the commemoration yet again by changing the word “armistice” to “veterans” so the day would honor American veterans of all wars.

And too many wars since Korea. THANK YOU to all the veterans and their families out there who served (and continue to fight personal battles) as well as to those who remain at the ready to serve. Blessings on you all.

A PERSONAL RUMINATION

skm

As a little girl, my father absolutely delighted me again and again with the following nonsensical poem. I came across it recently and was struck by the fact that in 2020, over 60 years later, it doesn't seem so nonsensical after all.

'Twas midnight on the ocean,
Not a street car was in sight,
The sun was shining brightly,
For it rained all day that night.

'Twas a Summer's day in Winter
The rain was snowing fast,
As a barefoot boy with shoes on
Stood sitting in the grass.

'Twas evening and the rising sun
Was setting in the West,
And all the fishes in the trees
Were cuddled in their nests.

The rain was pouring down,
The sun was shining bright,
And everything that you could see
Was hidden out of sight.

(Author Unknown)

Now not to put too find a point on these topsy-turvy days, but here's what I saw as I glanced over at the pool not long ago:

Most will not be surprised that, upon further investigation, it was our very own Gaby Brown with her daughter and granddaughter! Thanks for giving a visual to my personal ruminations!

Happy
Thanksgiving

Luck at the track?

Joe was reading his paper one morning when his wife walked up behind him and smacked him on the back of the head with a frying pan.

“What was that for?” Joe asked.

“I found a slip of paper in your pocket with ‘Hot Sue’ written on it.”

“Jeez, honey, remember last week when I went to the track? ‘Hot Sue’ was the name of the horse I bet on.”

She shrugged and walked away.

Three days later Joe was reading his paper when his wife walked up behind him and smacked him on the back of the head again with the frying pan. “What was that for?” he asked.

“Your horse just called.”

At the movies

---

A man with an elephant walked into a movie theater.

“I’m afraid I can’t let your elephant in here, sir,” the manager said.

“Oh, I assure you, he’s very well behaved,” the man said.

“All right, then,” the manager said. “If you’re sure.”

After the movie, the manager said to the man, “I’m very impressed! Your elephant was well behaved, and he even seemed to enjoy the movie!”

“Yes, I was surprised, too,” said the man. “He hated the book.”

There is nothing in the world so irresistibly contagious as laughter and good humor.

— Charles Dickens

A kindly gesture

---

A man was walking down the street one day when he noticed a boy trying to press a doorbell on a house across the street. However, the boy was very small, and the doorbell was too high for him to reach.

After watching the boy's efforts for some time, the man walked up onto the porch behind the little fellow and, placing his hand kindly on the child's shoulder, leaned over and gave the doorbell a solid ring.

Crouching down to the child's level, the man smiled kindly and asked, "And now what, my little man?"

The boy laughed. "Now we run!"

Afraid of the dark

A little boy was afraid of the dark. One night his mother told him to go out to the back porch and bring her the broom. The little boy turned to his mother and said, "Mama, I don't want to go out there. It's dark."

The mother smiled reassuringly at her son. "You don't have to be afraid of the dark," she explained. "God is out there. He'll look after you and protect you."

The little boy looked at his mother very hard and asked, "Are you sure He's out there?"

"Yes, I'm sure. He is everywhere, and He is always ready to help you when you need Him," she said.

The little boy thought about that for a minute and then went to the back door and cracked it a little. Peering out into the darkness, he called, "God? If you're out there, would you please hand me the broom?"

WHEN TREATING A HEART ATTACK OR STROKE, TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE. EVEN DURING THESE TIMES.

Don't hesitate when it comes to getting emergency treatment.

Even during a pandemic, you still need to be treated immediately if you have an emergency. Debating whether or not to risk going to an emergency room during a heart attack, stroke or other health emergency—waiting even a few extra minutes—could be harmful. That's why in all BayCare hospital emergency rooms, patients who have symptoms of COVID-19 are isolated from other patients. This helps keep emergency room patients and our team members safe. So if it's an emergency, don't wait. For more information: BayCareEmergencyCare.org

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."
