TMHA MESSAGE:

Submitted by Ben Cortez, TMHA President

Greetings and Happy Holiday's from the Board of Directors of Teakwood Village. We want to welcome all our Northern friends and families back to the Sunshine State. First and foremost is our Board of Directors elections this year. Our Treasurer resigned last season, so the Board appointed Yvan Blais to serve out the remaining term. Yvan is a West side resident and the Director that resigned was from the East. Our Bi-laws state that there must be 5 directors representing the East and 4 directors from the West. In order to fulfill our By-laws the director from the west that is up for re-election cannot run in this election, unless one of the other directors from the west resigns. Perhaps it is time for a bi-law change, we are after all one Village.

This year (3) three positions will be open on the east side for election/reelection, Ben Cortez, Sharon Miller and one more person. If you have an interest in seeking a position on the board, please submit a short bio of yourself so that we may post it in our halls. Thank you

Welcome to January. New year, new topics. As you know I sometimes have trouble finding a topic for our monthly chats, but this month I received 2 suggestions. So here goes on both. They have a crossover point.

Let's start with if you want to sell your mobile home. Teakwood Village Sales would be happy to do it for you or you can do it on your own. If you do it yourself there are a couple of things you need to do first. Contact Teakwood Village Sales (727)581-2628 and let them know you are DIY selling, they will have a form for you to sign. Once you have a potential buyer you will need the buyer to complete an application for residency with Teakwood Sales.

Now to the crossover; Teakwood is a 55+ mobile home park. Let me quote Page 3, Section D, item 1 of the Rules and Regulations: "The Park is intended and operated for occupancy by persons 55 years of age and older and, as such, adheres to the requirements of the Housing for Older Persons Act of 1995." Teakwood requires one person in the home to be at least 55 years old and the 2nd person to be no less than 45. We have to maintain a minimum of 80% above 55 years old or we will no longer be a 55+. This means simply that Teakwood has to verify the age of everyone who lives in Teakwood and make sure that the law is followed. We keep a close eye on the percentages so that if someone is 55 and their spouse is 53, they can live in Teakwood.

Elections for new Board members for 2020 – 2021 were voted on at the December 10th business meeting. I would like to thank all of the Teakwood East residents who volunteered to give of their time and serve on the Board: Randy Brundage, Ann Cortez, Betty Flannery, Kathi Hawkins, Faye Kilinger and Sharon Sklar. The results of the voting are: Randy Brundage will be the new Vice President and Ann Cortez and Kathi Hawkins were voted in as Directors. We had an excellent turn-out for the voting and I thank all of you for taking an active part in the Social Club elections.

BE ALERT to outsiders who are in our park who have been taking Christmas decorations off of porches and front yards. This is a particular problem near the Rosery Rd entrance to Teakwood.

SOCIAL CLUB MEMBERSHIP

Membership cards must be shown to purchase the lower priced tickets to Teakwood East Social Club events. Membership dues are only $2 per person yearly (1/1 – 12/31). Memberships for 2020 are now on sale at Tuesday Koffee Klatch. Social events, such as dinners, dances, shows and most entertainment, are held throughout the year. The cost of these events is partially defrayed by the intake of Membership Dues. If you do not have a Social Club Membership, you'll be required to pay the Non-member or Guest fee for your ticket. New residents to Teakwood receive their first year of membership free. Renters are asked to purchase their membership and join in the fun & activities. Memberships may be purchased from Randy Brundage. What other club can you join for so little and yet get so much?!?!

have been there for the entire experience! I'd like to thank all of them! There are hundreds of unimaginable stories, wacky happenings, just like Alice in Wonderland. But the best part of my job is the people I have met, the friends I have made and the fun we have had. But as the Mad Hatter said, "You're entirely bonkers. But I'll tell you a secret: All the best people are."

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED:

Submitted by the Activities Team

Volunteers!

We have gotten a tremendous response from residents volunteering their time to host, help set-up, serve food, take tickets, do Share the Wealth and clean-up after events. Thank you ALL! Those who sign-up are able to reserve 2 seats per person to that event. If you do the work, you get the perk. All other residents must wait until noon on the day of the event to put their name on a table. There is an additional perk for the person or couple who sign up to Host/ be the Team Leader at Social Club events. The host(s) will get a free ticket(s) to the event!!! The Team Leader(s) will receive the sign-up sheet for your event with the names and phone numbers of the people who have volunteered to help. It really couldn't be easier.

The Activities Team will take care of contracting the caterers, bands & performers and provide table cloths etc. for things like the Valentine's Day & St. Patty's dances and shows like the Godfather of Comedy. The only thing the Host/Team Leader needs to do is coordinate with the volunteers for the various needs of the event. In January we will have new sign-up sheets for March and April

For those who would like to volunteer in any capacity we have sign-up sheets at coffee. For those of you who do not attend coffee but would like to help out, please contact Maureen Liebler (408-5761) & Dianna Martin (424-9332). It truly does take a village to make this all work!!

WEEKLY MAHJONGG:

Submitted by Kathy Hawkins

Mahjongg takes place most Wednesdays (except Holidays), in Tiki Hall from 1 - 3pm. We welcome women & men. Most of us who attend are just "social" players & play for fun! We're NOT tournament caliber players and don't take ourselves too seriously... although we DO have rules and we DO like to WIN!! Stop by some Wednesday, meet some of us, see if you'd like to try. We do have someone who can give you some mahjongg pointers (she knows the rules). We do not charge to play, there is no open kitchen (we bring our bottle of water or soda). Call me, Kathi Hawkins, if you have any questions. My name & number is in your Yellow Book.

GREETING CARD CLASS:

Ann Cortez

The next Greeting Card Class will be held on January 2, 2019 at 10 am in the Tiki Hall. The cost is $5 for 5 cards. If you have never joined before and would like more information, please email me at photosbyanne@aol.com

BINGO:

Submitted by Sharon Miller

Come join us for Bingo every Tuesday evening at the Aloha Clubhouse. All cards must be purchased prior to 6:45 pm so we are ready to start our games at 7:00 pm. The kitchen is open before the games and during the break time. The Hot Dogs are great and are only sold prior to the game. If you don't play Bingo but want dinner, why not a Hot Dog? You can also get chips, popcorn, candy, ice cream and sodas. CAN BINGO is held on the 1st Tuesday of the month and the food is given to the RCS Foodbank which provides food for those less fortunate in our area. This month "Can Bingo" will be on January 7th. Please bring a non-perishable food item or $1 and we will give you a card to play this special game. (multiple items/money is welcome – you will get one card for each item donated) Everything received, including the money, is given to RCS to support the people in our area who need assistance. The East Social Club supports this game and provides the money to support our prize which is valued at approximately $100.00.

BUNCO:

Submitted by Laurie & Phil Goudreau

Bunco has started up again. Come join us at the Aloha Hall on Friday nights at 6:00 pm. This game takes NO special skills and is lots of fun. The cost is $5 per person and all money is given back in prizes. The kitchen will be open for snacks at break time.

MUSIC CIRCLE:

Submitted by Bill O'Sullivan

Those of you who sing, play a musical instrument or simply enjoy listening to a variety of music, come join us in a "Musical Circle" on Sundays from 1-3 pm at the Aloha Hall. Sing and play along with like-minded musicians and singers as we share our talents in a relaxed setting. Both East and West residents and friends are invited. See you There!

DINING OUT

By Dianna Martin

Aroma Indian Cuisine; 351 W Bay Dr, Largo, FL 33770; (727) 754-2499; Closed Tuesday; Dine in or carry-out; Open all other days 11:00 – 3:00 for lunch and 5:00 – 10:00 for dinner; Buffet 11-3 Fri, Sat, Sun ($13.99)

Some people assume that Indian food is very spicy but that is not necessarily so. Curry is not the only dish in Indian cuisine. When going to Aroma Indian ask your waiter about the spice level of dishes you are interested in ordering. Aroma has a great selection of vegetarian, lamb, chicken, seafood and goat.

Before you even order you are brought a dish of Pappadu which is a chip made of fennel seeds and chickpeas with small bowls of red chutney, which is very spicy & a green chutney which is milder but a little spicy & sweet tamarind sauce. The meal started with Paneer Pakora ($6) which is marinated Indian cheese dipped in batter and deep fried. These were very crispy, and the cheese holds up well to heat. The second item was Lamb Samosa ($6) which is a crispy pastry filled with mildly spiced ground lamb and peas. The flavor was delicious, but they were a little dry inside. Sweet tamarind sauce drizzled over the lamb evens this out.

For the entrees we had 1) Chicken Tika ($14). This is a boneless chicken breast marinated in yogurt, herbs & spices and roasted Tandori style (clay pot or oven) This dish makes quite an impression as it comes to your table on a sizzling platter with a side of tomato, curry, butter dipping sauce. The chicken is served over grilled, but still crisp, green peppers & onions which lay on a mound of perfectly cooked basmati rice (not an easy thing to accomplish). The sauce is tangy with an after-taste of heat. 2) Lamb Rogan Josh ($14) was tender and cooked in a gravy mad of onion, tomato and a touch of yogurt & herbs. This is the Indian version of lamb stew; tender cubes of lamb with a rich savory gravy served with basmati rice on the side. This is a very mildly spiced dish and was my favorite of the evening!!

On the side we had Saag Paneer ($13); finely chopped spinach sautéed with a touch of cream and cubes of Paneer cheese. If you like spinach this is creamy deliciousness and it off-set the slight heat from the Chicken Tika (2nd favorite of the meal). No Indian dish is complete without Naan ($3). This is an unleavened soft flat bread baked in a tandoori oven. I was amazed at the variety of flavors they have for their Naan. Naan is a great edible tool to scoop up Saag or run around the rim of the Lamb Rogan Josh to get all of the delectable gray, or just on its own. Aroma has a nice array of authentic Indian desserts. If you have room, try the Mango Pudding, which is a creamy loose custard that has a taste of caramel OR try the Mango or Pisto Kulfir, which is similar to an Italian gelato

The atmosphere is quiet and lovely with soft background music. There are comfortable booths and individual tables for 1-4 that can be put together for larger groups. There are real cloth linens (how many places do that any more??) and silver serving dishes for things like Saag and Basmati Rice. This lends an air of elegance to the evening. As you would expect the colors on the walls are bright but in keeping with an upscale Indian restaurant. The pendant lights above the booth tables have lovely colored paper shades. The only note I found somewhat discordant were the triangular flags strung around the room. It reminded me of the ropes put up to designate the track at a bike race.

I have saved the best comments to last. Owner/Chef Kuldeep has kept true to his Indian heritage and of course this shows up in the food. The hostess, Karina and waiter, Angel were very professional and very knowledgeable about each dish; it's spice level, creaminess and ingredients used. Congrats to Chef Kuldeep for properly educating his staff so his patrons can better enjoy their mini trip to India.

Up coming events are the Christmas Dance, Carolers parade on Christmas Eve, and the New Years Eve Dance will be the last event for 2019. 2020 will be another busy year here in Teakwood..

I hope everyone will attend and support our social club.

MEET YOUR NEIGHBOUR DAWN KELLY

Born Dawn Forrest, on September 15, 1954, I was the 4th of six children. My father was a sargeant in the Canadian army and my mother was a stay at home mom at the time. I'm pretty sure I was meant to be the youngest but had two sisters born after that. Although I don't remember it, I was born in Whitehorse, Yukon but being in the armed forces we moved frequently. My father was stationed to Camp Borden Ontario in 1958 and mustered out two years later. Rather than live on base my parents rented a farmhouse outside Alliston Ontario which is where I started school. It was a two room school house and I was in the same class as my older brother - not a good thing. My brother Duncan has always been a practical joker and his siblings - usually me - were his favorite targets! When the snow got too deep we would be picked up by horse and cutter to go to school, no snow days there. On leaving the army we moved to Barrie Ontario as it was the closest city to Camp Borden.

After leaving the army, my father spent many years as a salesman. First selling cars then later selling boats. When his employer opened a new car lot in Orillia - just north of Barrie, Dad took a position at the new car lot. We moved to Orillia on my tenth birthday - one of my more memorable birthdays! When my youngest sister started school my mother went to work in a local factory where she stayed until they left Orillia. Being the child of a native Canadian had very little effect on me growing up as I did not "look" native. Others of my siblings did not have it so easy, often being taunted, called names and even being physically assaulted. Watching this happen to my siblings and even to my mother was not easy and to this day I have a hard time holding my tongue when people make judgemental comments.

My father returned to school in his 40's and became an accountant. He then got a job with the Canadian government and moved to Thunder Bay. This made my mother very happy as she was born and raised there and still had numerous family members living there.

I do not remember ever wanting to be anything other than a nurse growing up. I think there was one year where I considered becoming an airline stewardess but that didn't last. After graduating from Grade 13 - where I took three different English courses to get my diploma- in 1973, I attended nursing school in Orillia, Ontario at Soldier's Memorial Hospital. We were one of the first classes to be downloaded to the college. So that makes me an alumnus of Georgian College. I started the program in September 1973, but left in January. I was "in love" and had difficulty concentrating on all that work they expected of me! I spent three months working in a factory and decided to go back to college asap.

I married my first husband, Rick Sears, in June 1974 and returned to school that fall. Without Rick's support I would not have been able to complete the course.

After graduating in 1976, I obtained employment at the Huronia Regional Center. I worked as an RN in a large center for adults with developmental delays. After a year I was fortunate to obtain employment in the hospital where I trained.

When I became pregnant with my son David, I did not have enough time working to qualify for maternity benefits and had no job to go back to. We decided to take this opportunity to travel and moved to Alberta where I got a job in a very small town north of Edmonton. We were incredibly homesick and after one of our phone bills was almost $700 we decided western Canada was not for us.

Fortunately, Rick was well known in his trade and was able to return to his previous job as a "tire technician" in Orillia Ontario. I spent another four years at the Huronia Regional Center and after the birth of my daughter, Terri-lyn, I returned to Soldier's Memorial Hospital. I started in the medical unit and spent several semesters upgrading to specialty units. My son has often said that he thought taking courses was what every adult did.

I eventually ended up working in the Neonatal Intensive Care unit where we looked after the smallest and sickest babies until they could be sent to Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto or became stable enough to stay with us.

When the hospital decided to merge the NICU with the paediatric unit I found myself working more often on paedics than in the nursery. Time to do more upgrading! One of the courses I took was to become a diabetic educator and I was the liaison with the paediatric diabetic center. Our hospital always had a close working relationship with Sick Kids and we eventually became a step down unit for children receiving cancer treatment in the city, so they could have their follow up closer to home. After several deaths of long term patients I realized I needed a change. I spent the next five years in Emerg - oh yes more upgrading! After 26 years working at SMH, I retired and spent the next five years working part time in Barrie in emerg. I retired for good in 2014. Woot woot, no more courses!!!

Some of the things I am most proud of, are first and foremost my family. Even though my first marriage ended after 29 years, I will always be grateful to Rick for the blessings of my children David and Terri-lyn. Al's daughter Cailin has been a wonderful addition to our family. My beautiful granddaughter Tessa spends part of each summer with us and for that we are so grateful. Tyler, Mason and Madison are teenagers now with their own interests but are always in our thoughts.

David introduced me to his boss's friend Al, in 2006 and we married 2 years later. I am so fortunate to have found my soulmate at this point in my life and together we enjoy traveling and spending time with family and friends. It is through Al's parents that we were introduced to Teakwood. Rachel and Eddie had a place here for many years off and on in the 80's through to 2007.

I also spent 20 years being a girl guide leader and still maintain friendships made during that time. I have always enjoyed sewing, starting as a teenager and continuing throughout my life. I currently volunteer at Gilda's Club in Barrie helping those living with cancer. Both Al and I believe in giving back to our community and have volunteered during many events here at Teakwood. In my spare time I love to read as well as play board games and kayak whenever possible.

Although we have sold our Teakwood home we look forward to spending many more years as renters here in our beautiful piece of heaven on earth.

FROM THE EDITORS - JANUARY, 2020

That was strange - 2020 - doesn't seem possible that another year has come and gone! It certainly has been an eventful one. Lots of changes in our Teakwood Heaven. Thanks to Sandra, Ruby and Liz for keeping up with all the comings and goings. As you may know, Al and I have sold our place and are fortunate to be returning to Teakwood to rent from Dave and Barb Woods. November was a whirlwind of selling our place and getting rid of everything, and then we returned to Ontario for Christmas. Hopefully we will see everyone at New Year's Eve celebrations.

Our big Flea Market is coming up next month and Cheryl will be happy to have her house and carport empty again. This is a major fundraiser for our social club so please support it in any way you can. January sees us having another brunch and the first golf tournament, which is always a good time. Bocce starts as well as Shuffleboard and all the card nights are again up and running. Bingos on Friday evenings are always enjoyed by many. We have Las Vegas day coming up as well on January 18, Wine and Cheese on January 25 and Superbowl on February 2nd. We do keep busy.

We still are having problems receiving information about upcoming events. Chairpersons please send info via email to "teakwoodkelly@gmail.com". We have had people hand us scraps of paper with information written out which is not preferable as loose pieces of paper are easily misplaced. If you do not have email access perhaps one of the other participants could help out by sending it to us.

Because we were so busy prior to leaving Florida I did not have an opportunity to interview people for "meet your neighbor". I hope you enjoy this month's article - it is much more difficult to write about yourself!

Happy New Year to ALL! May your year be blessed with good health and good friends!

Dawn and Al
