Westwind II “Hi-Lites” CONDENSED EDITION

Tim Burgner, Editor

Over a year ago, I added the “PG-13 Laughs & Giggles” to the FULL EDITION (email version) of the “Hi Lites.” When I write that If you’re not getting the “Hi Lites” email edition, you’re missing out on ALL the “FUN STUFF” and you’re only seeing HALF of the “Hi Lites,” this is just one of the items you’re missing! MANY of the comments I receive is that people do enjoy the “PG-13” jokes & cartoons. If you’re not already getting the email edition, give yourself a Christmas present and get on the email list....TRY IT; YOU’LL LIKE IT!.....mitrengrub@gmail.com.....

Are you getting the “Hi Lites” email edition? If not, you’re missing out on ALL the “FUN STUFF.” The email edition is sent out 2 weeks before the published park edition is delivered. It is FULL of pictures instead of ads. It’s sent out 12 months a year. It’s FULL of color and it’s FREE!...More than 280 people are now on the list....YOU should be too.... Just send an email to mitrengrub@gmail.com to get on the list....SO SIMPLE!....See what you’ve been missing. If you’re not getting the email edition, you’re NOT seeing the “Hi Lites.” (NO ONE will see your email address.)

mitrengrub@gmail.com

[When you see this note, it means you are not seeing any/all of pictures which are in the FULL EDITION...anywhere from one (1) to twenty (20)] - for that article alone.

THANK YOU ELAINE FOR ALL YOU DO!!!

Elaine Blank has worn MANY hats over the years she has lived in WW II. One of them has been coordinating delivery of the published monthly “Hi Lites” booklets to our park residents. She must now step away from this task.

I am pleased to announce that Trish Craig has agreed to now be in charge of this task! If no one had “stepped-up,” the published edition of the “Hi Lites” would have ended. THANKS, TRISH!

Tim Burgner, Editor

BIG SHOES TO FILL!

THANK YOU, ELAINE!!!

THANKS TO PAT SNYDER FOR THE FOLLOWING:

I have made arrangements to pick up Toys for Tots donation boxes again this year. The boxes will be picked up on Friday, November 13th and I will be returning the filled boxes to the warehouse on Monday December 14th. We may have to work a little harder to get those boxes filled as the number of residents in the park will be decreased this year. Please consider donating a little extra this year if you are able and help the children have a magical Christmas.

FYI—All toys must be new and NOT in wrapping paper. Recipient ages are birth to 12. TOYS FOR TOTS WILL NOT DISTRIBUTE TOYS WITH REALISTIC LOOKING WEAPONS OR GIFTS WITH FOOD.

Please remember Toys for Tots on your next shopping excursion.

Thanks,
Pat Snyder

DECEMBER, 2020 CONTRIBUTORS

They all sent articles and/or pictures for this month's "Hi Lites." Without their help, there would be VERY little to report in this edition of "Hi Lites." THANK YOU!

Tim Burgner

WHEN TREATING A HEART ATTACK OR STROKE, TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE. EVEN DURING THESE TIMES.

Don't hesitate when it comes to getting emergency treatment.

Even during a pandemic, you still need to be treated immediately if you have an emergency. Debating whether or not to risk going to an emergency room during a heart attack, stroke or other health emergency—waiting even a few extra minutes—could be harmful. That's why in all BayCare hospital emergency rooms, patients who have symptoms of COVID-19 are isolated from other patients. This helps keep emergency room patients and our team members safe. So if it's an emergency, don't wait. For more information: BayCareEmergencyCare.org

MEET YOUR NEIGHBOR:

CLYDE & NORMA ENGLISH - # 477

Hi, we are Clyde and Norma English (#477) from Marshall Twp., PA - about 20 miles North of Pittsburgh (Go Steelers). For most of our lives, we lived about 6 miles from each other but didn't meet until we were 28. We married at 29 and bought a small home on 16 acres. Clyde told me to "make sure you like this place because I'm not moving again" and we didn't. We did remodel and add on. Of course, the large garage had to come first!

Clyde held many jobs: truck driver, mechanic, welder, and then he and Bob Lang bought a liquor license and opened Cranberry (Twp) Beer Distributor

He worked at his business for 24 years and retired, got bored and drove school buses until he really retired!

I, also, worked many jobs; Dairy Queen, car hop, waitress, receptionist, college (BS in biology) hospital lab, NIH research lab, and then to Pennsylvania Dept. of Environmental Protection. I worked there 20 years and then I retired.

When we married, Clyde drove a stock car. I loved to watch him race (except when he was involved in a wreck). We both liked water skiing and snow skiing. So, we got a small, cozy cabin near our local ski resort. We joined friends many times skiing in the Rockies. In the summer, sometimes, we cruised a bit in the Caribbean and Alaska. I bowled (until my shoulder and knee objected - strenuously) and played cards.

We had rented in West Wind for 6 years. Then Clyde's breathing problems increased and we needed to be here longer. So we said good bye to our cabin and bought unit 477. We are proud to be Christians, conservative Americans and a part of our West Wind II community.

Editor's Note: It is with great sadness that I must report Clyde English's passing after this article was sent several months ago.

I communicated with Norma and it was decided to print this article as it was originally written and to enter it in the December "Hi Lites" as it was originally scheduled. December was their wedding anniversary month. This article is now in the "Meet Your Neighbor" book located in the Westwind II library.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THANKS TO NORMA ENGLISH FOR THE FOLLOWING:

Dear Tim, I think, if it's OK with you, I would like to have it published with your editors note. I think Clyde would like that. He made some good friends down there and loved his carving class. I am thankful to so many who stopped in to visit or just waved as they walked by.

Things are fairly good here. The house is very empty especially in the evenings. I don't think I can ever like it but I am accepting it. I plan to be down early in January.

Thank you for writing. Hope things get back to fairly normal and we can have our social functions again.

Norma

CHRISTMAS PARTY

Just a reminder that the annual WWII Christmas Party has been cancelled for 2020. As everyone knows, it is an event open to all Westwind residents, limited only by fire regulation numbers. It is an event that usually sees the clubhouse filled to capacity. There is no way to social distance with that amount of people so for safety reasons we felt the need to cancel.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

I'm interested in forming an "investment club" here in the park. Looking at maybe weekly coffee sessions where we could share investment info that are on the rise. Maybe a minor mention in the next "Hi Lites" would be a start. Interested people can contact me at (727) 647-9039 anytime

HOW I SPENT MY SUMMER VACATION

THANKS TO ANNETTE & MIKE CUFFE FOR THE FOLLOWING:

We added a new adventure to our already blessed life... a camper! We found that renewing memories in places where we have already camped and exploring places in NY State that we always wanted to see helped us deal with the pandemic in a surprisingly wonderful way!

Returning home from a Sunday morning bike ride (10-18-20), I heard loud music....I assumed it was someone's stereo turned way up....I turned into a driveway and saw these scenes. Turns out it was an outdoor church service taking place in the church parking lot.

THANKS TO JOHN SCHOEN FOR THE FOLLOWING:

Slow Down and Stop...PLEASE!
We have had many Westwind One residents express their concerns about the traffic safety in the park. Most frequently cited as issues are speeding and the failure to stop at the Stop signs. These issues impact not only the safety of our residents but of our visitors and guests. It has been pointed out that many vendors as well as Westwind residents are in violation. This is a particularly serious problem on First Street where speeding and the failure to stop at the intersection of 1st Street and 7th Avenue have created a very dangerous situation.

The Westwind 1 board of directors has formed a committee to do a study on how to resolve this issue. To get input from the WW1 residents they will be sending out a survey. If there are any residents in WW2 who share our concerns and would like to have input we ask you to please submit any comments or suggestions to the WW1 Managers Office. We appreciate everyone's assistance in making our Westwind community a safe place to live.

BOOK CLUB

On October 27th the Westwind Book Club met and discussed the book Little Fires Everywhere by Celeste Ng. It was determined that no one wanted the book to end. They had hoped there might be a sequel as there were a few characters that you just wanted to know what paths their lives followed after the story ended. There were many issues in the book that were great topics of discussion.

The book for November is Where Jasmine Blooms by Holly S. Warah. The meeting will be on Tuesday, November 24th at noon in the Westwind II Club house. The discussion will be led by Joyce Pinckney.

The December choice is Mrs. Everything by Jennifer Weiner. The question is “Do we change or does the world change us?”. Jo and Bethie Kaufman were born into a world full of promise. Growing up in 1950’s Detroit, they live in a perfect “Dick and Jane” house, where their roles in the family are clearly defined. Jo is the tomboy, the bookish rebel with a passion to make the world more fair; Bethie is the pretty, feminine good girl, a would-be star who enjoys the power her beauty confers and dreams of a traditional life. Now you have to read the book to see what happens!

Trish Craig has taken the lead in continuing the Book Club meetings. I will help by sending meeting reminders and Hi-Lites articles. I wish I could be there with you as the Book Club is very dear to my heart. Don’t forget your mask and enjoy the discussion on Tuesday, December 29th at noon.

Elaine Blank

HEART GRABBER

Sent by "ME"

The telephone rang. It was a call from his mother. He answered it and his mother told him, "Mr. Belser died last night. The funeral is Wednesday."

Memories flashed through his mind like an old newsreel as he sat quietly remembering his childhood days.

"Jack, did you hear me?"

"Oh, sorry, Mom. Yes, I heard you. It's been so long since I thought of him. I'm sorry, but I honestly thought he died years ago," Jack said.

"Well, he didn't forget you. Every time I saw him he'd ask how you were doing. He'd reminisce about the many days you spent over 'his side of the fence' as he put it," Mom told him.

"I loved that old house he lived in," Jack said.

"You know, Jack, after your father died, Mr. Belser stepped in to make sure you had a man's influence in your life," she said.

"He's the one who taught me carpentry," he said. "I wouldn't be in this business if it weren't for him. He spent a lot of time teaching me things he thought were important. Mom, I'll be there for the funeral," Jack said.

As busy as he was, he kept his word. Jack caught the next flight to his hometown. Mr. Belser's funeral was small and uneventful. He had no children of his own, and most of his relatives had passed away.

The night before he had to return home, Jack and his Mom stopped by to see the old house next door one more time. Standing in the doorway, Jack paused for a moment. It was like crossing over into another dimension, a leap through space and time. The house was exactly as he remembered.

Every step held memories. Every picture, every piece of furniture...Jack stopped suddenly...

"What's wrong, Jack?" his Mom asked.

"The box is gone," he said.

"What box?" Mom asked.

"There was a small gold box that he kept locked on top of his desk. I must have asked him a thousand times what was inside. All he'd ever tell me was 'the thing I value most,'" Jack said.

It was gone. Everything about the house was exactly how Jack remembered it, except for the box. He figured someone from the Belser family had taken it.

"Now I'll never know what was so valuable to him," Jack said.

"I better get some sleep. I have an early flight home, Mom."

It had been about two weeks since Mr. Belser died. Returning home from work one day Jack discovered a note in his mailbox. "Signature required on a package. No one at home. Please stop by the main post office within the next three days," the note read.

Early the next day Jack went to the post office and retrieved the package. The small box was old and looked like it had been mailed a hundred years ago. The handwriting was difficult to read, but the return address caught his attention.

"Mr. Harold Belser" it read.

Jack took the box out to his car and ripped open the package. There inside was the gold box and an envelope.

Jack's hands shook as he read the note inside.

"Upon my death, please forward this box and its contents to Jack Bennett. It's the thing I valued most in my life." A small key was taped to the letter. His heart racing, as tears filled his eyes, Jack carefully unlocked the box. There inside he found a beautiful gold pocket watch.

Running his fingers slowly over the finely etched casing, he unlatched the cover. Inside he found these words engraved: "Jack, Thanks for your time! -- Harold Belser."

"The thing he valued most was my time!"

Jack held the watch for a few minutes, then called his office and cleared his appointments for the next two days.*

"Why?" Janet, his assistant asked.

"I need some time to spend with the people I love and say I care for," he said. "Oh, by the way, Janet, thanks for your time!"

"Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take but by the moments that take our breath away."

Think about this. You may not realize it, but it's 100 percent true.

1. At least 15 people in this world love you in some way.
2. A smile from you can bring happiness to anyone, even if they don't like you.
3. Every night, SOMEONE thinks about you before they go to sleep.
4. You mean the world to someone.
5. If not for you, someone may not be living.
6. You are special and unique.
7. Have trust sooner or later you will get what you wish for or something better.
8. When you make the biggest mistake ever, something good can still come from it.
9. When you think the world has turned its back on you, take a hard look: you most likely

HEART GRABBER

Sent by "ME"

"This, friends, is what greatness looks like in a quiet moment."

This is Sharon, my mother-in-law.

She taught me it's important work to see someone for who they are and not what you expect.

When I first met my mother-in-law I had a hard time understanding her thick south Virginia accent. And she seemed a little bossy in that southern passive aggressive polite way.

But I knew she was important to the love of my life, so I accepted her grudgingly as some of us do when family is forced on us.

After 5 years I still didn't really know her.

When my wife got leukemia at 30.

When our world was shattered and changed forever, Sharon very quietly and very firmly stepped into the role she was born for.

She moved, with her dependent Vietnam vet husband, into our house and became Michele's caretaker too.

Over the last two years she bought most of the groceries, cooked almost every meal, did most of the laundry and cleaning, drove both dependents to almost every one of the 300+ doctor appointments, sorted tens of thousands of pills, and made sure they were all taken on time at every hour every day.

And she did this when she herself was diagnosed with cancer 6 months ago. When she was getting a mastectomy. When she is going through chemo.

She hums when she works.

She talks to herself when there's no one to listen, and she goes about every day with humility and grace.

I took this photo before I left work this morning.

She didn't know I was there.

This, friends, is what greatness looks like in a quiet moment. Waiting on oatmeal to cook

WINDFALL SALE

THANKS TO PAT SNYDER FOR THE FOLLOWING:

Hope everyone is well and remembering to wear a mask and maintain distance. Although we will not be holding our annual Windfall Sale in 2021, I plan to organize and pack whatever donations are in the shed when I return. Tim and I will be back in Westwind the beginning of November and once I am settled in will begin work on the sheds. I will appreciate if there is anyone who will be able to help. The plan is for only a few people to work at a time so that we will be able to socially distance and remain safe and healthy. Hopefully all will be back to normal and the sale will resume in 2022.

Large items will be for sale throughout the winter. I will once again be posting pictures on the board in the club house. If you are looking for a particular item, let us know and we will keep an eye out for it.

We appreciate all the residents' efforts which make for successful sales and hope we are in a position to continue with the Windfall Sale in February 2022.

Be safe and stay well!

Jill Desranleau and Pat Snyder- Chairpersons

“WILL WORK FOR BEER”

Someone in WW II asked if we could try to bring back our old “Help Out Your Neighbor” that used to be in the “Hi Lites.”

Well.....we are! and here it is: We’re calling it by a NEW name - “Will Work for Beer.” If you have a SMALL job that needs to be done and would like an extra hand, one of these people can probably do it. (We’re not talking about anything major. This is not meant to be for “handyman projects.” It is meant for something relatively simple that should only take a few minutes to complete (installing fluorescent bulbs, programming a TV remote, hanging a curtain rod, getting something down from a top shelf, etc.) It is meant to be a FREE service. You are not expected to pay anything - even a free beer. This service will be provided to W W II residents We are looking for MORE names for this list. If you would like to be included, please call or e-mail me - Tim Burgner.

Just call anyone's name on this list. They'll let you know if they can help or refer you to another person.

SOCIAL CLUB PRESIDENT’S LETTER

Welcome back to all of our residents that have left the north to come south. It has been a quiet summer here and activities have been very limited. Going forward into the winter season we will have to play it by ear as to what activities we are or are not having. The Christmas party and the windfall sale have already been canceled. Until further notice we will have to look at our “Hi Lites” to see what’s happening. I have also instituted a Facebook page for Westwind II Social Club. I will try to post things there so that we have an updated list of what activities may be occurring. We are having coffee again so if you’re interested in signing up, the sign-up sheet is on the board. We also will have an election in January and if anyone is interested in running please let me know. If anyone has an activity in mind that would still allow us social distancing, please let me know. I wish all of you a safe winter ahead.

2020 - THE NEW NORMAL

---

THANKS TO MARIA SERAPHIM FOR THE FOLLOWING:

At what point can we just start using 2020 as a swear word?

As in:

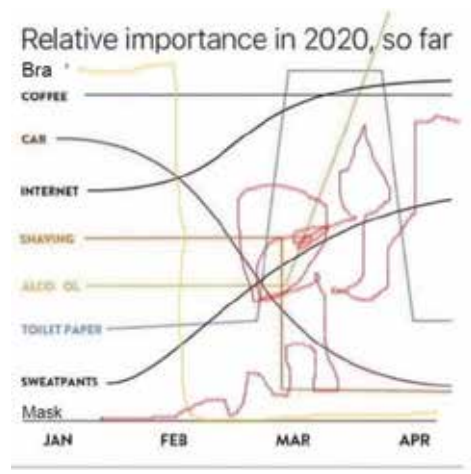

“What a load of 2020.”

“What the 2020?”

“Absa-2020-lutely!”

Calm Down!

Walmart is just asking you to wear a mask. You can still wear your pajamas, and leave your bras and teeth at home.

It took “Click it or Ticket” to get people to wear a seatbelt.
 I wonder if “Mask it or Casket”
 might work?

DUE DATE FOR THE JANUARY “HI LITES” IS:
 Dec. 1, 2020
